

The Church of the Nativity

Sunday 28th July 2019

Our Mission is ...

To draw people to faith in Christ
To grow people in their commitment to Christ
To reach out beyond ourselves with the love of Christ

The two great problems in our society are the breakdown in human relationships and the hold that stuff has over people's lives. The bible has an amazing amount to say about both so offer followers of Jesus a great opportunity to demonstrate something uniquely different.

Consider these three basic biblical principles:

- How we handle our relationships is a measure of our maturity in God. It is the main test of our Christian maturity.
- 2. How we handle our physical resources is a measure of our faithfulness (trustworthiness) to God. Jesus said, 'If you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?' (Luke 16:11)
- 3. Our effectiveness and ministry in the kingdom of God is directly related to our faithfulness, not our giftedness. We can be very gifted and very sacrificial but if love is lacking then giftedness and sacrifice are worth nothing. (1 Corinthians 13:13)

Giftedness is a measure of God's grace towards us. Trustworthiness is our gift to God.

In our material resources God has given us a practical test of how trustworthy we are. Material resources are visible, within our grasp and control. They are not hard to measure. God assesses trustworthiness by how we use these resources.

Go well and blessings Richard

Welcome to our services today! 28th July 2019

Theme: Resources and Relationships

Readings: 1 John 3:11-18 & Luke 11:1-13

Sentence: Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth. 1 John 3:18

Collect: Provident Father, you grant the Holy Spirit to all who call upon you; may we so ask that we joyfully receive, search that we may fully find, and knock that the door of compassion is opened; through

Christ our Mediator, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Examen (Evening Reflection)

Written by St. Ignatius Loyola, the Examen is a daily process for prayerfully reflecting on your day.

1. Remember God's presence.

Even after a trying day, God will quiet your soul as you remember His presence and intentionally seek to enter into it. Remember He's with you. Invite Him to make Himself present to you.

2. Respond to Him with thanks.

Giving thanks gives God glory and helps us look on the bright side of a bad day. What small blessings can you thank God for?

3. Reflect on how God showed Himself to you.

God reveals himself through scripture, but we also see glimpses of him in nature, events, and people. Sometimes He shows up loudly through miraculous, divine intervention. Other times He shows Himself quietly through the beauty of a flower or an earnest conversation. As you look back over your day, can you identify moments where you sensed God's revelation or intervention?

4. Repent of your failings.

I don't like recognizing my own sin, but repentance is key to continual renewal in our relationship with God. As you reflect on your day, remember specific points where you failed. Bring your shortcomings before God and ask Him to forgive you.

5. Resolve to grow.

God is in the business of changing us, so don't let your failings discourage or define you. His mercies are always new. Accept His forgiveness. Ask Him for grace to change. Is there anything you need to make right or anyone you need to apologize to? What can you do differently tomorrow?
