The Church of the Nativity
Sunday 1st January 2017
Our Mission is ...
To draw people to faith in Christ
To grow people in their commitment to Christ
To reach out beyond ourselves with the love of Christ

Dear friends

Happy New Year, and welcome to our visitors. We hope for you a good year in 2017.

New Year is a time of mixed hope. Somehow it can represent for us a new start in many of life's endeavours. Often we'll have had a break from work and our usual routines. If we haven't partied or holidayed too hard we may well have renewed energy and a fresh attitude that lets us attack some of those things we've put off or found too hard in the past. Unfortunately, it's also a time of sceptical hope for many. Failed New Year resolutions and disappointments from previous years – or plain negative attitudes - can give us a jaundiced view on the future.

A faith in Jesus whose birth we have just celebrated gives us a basis for being ultimately optimistic in life, even when things are difficult. That in turn frees us to behave in life giving ways we could never do in our own power. That's why we are stepping out in faith this year, to invest anew into staff whose ministries will reach out to those who are on or beyond the fringes of the church, and the young. That's why we will continue to prayerfully explore the sorts of buildings we require to serve our mission here into the future.

Our January preachers are bringing to us a range of topics that relate to this hope and resulting investment into life. The first of these is mercy. We could never be merciful if all we knew was self-preservation. It's a well-known life principle that we can only love to the degree that we have been loved.

The invitation is on the table for all of us. God offers us a new season of epiphanies in Epiphany; a new voice, a new song, and ever new possibilities. Yes - we can be changed!

God bless

Bob and Libby
